11th Sunday in Ordinary Time

The kingdom of God is like a mustard seed, which springs up and becomes the largest of plants, like a tender shoot from the cedar which will bear fruit and become a majestic cedar. So shall the just one flourish, like a cedar. As we walk by faith and not by sight, may our lives bear fruit in abundance.

- Provide lunch and snacks for the team members

Dear Friends,

I am excited to be a part of Totus Tuus (Totally Yours) Summer Camp this year. I am excited about the program because it is uniquely Catholic. Based on the information I have received, the lessons and activities our children will be engaged in will revolve around the 10 Commandments and the “Glorious Mysteries” of the Rosary.

Hosting this event is a rather large undertaking for our parish. However, I think you will agree that it is worth it to educate our children in our Catholic faith.

Not everyone can donate their time, but if you can donate some time, I would be happy to talk with you about how you can do that.

Not everyone can donate supplies, but if you can these are some things we will need:

- 2 large boxes of Captain Crunch cereal
- sugar-free cake mix & sugar-free gelatin
- sugar-free instant pudding
- large boxes of Gold Fish crackers
- corn chips and salsa
- breakfast bars and Ritz Crackers
- Swedish Fish candy (Walmart)

If you want to donate, but don't want to shop, we will accept cash donations.

Not everyone can do any of what has been mentioned so far, but everyone can pray. We need intercessors! Pray for the missionaries, pray for the weather, pray for our volunteers, but most of all pray for our children.

God Bless You!
